“ I had no idea how hard this would be or how terribly I would miss you. I see so much of you in myself and I pray that I can make you proud. I know that you are with Dad again and I can only imagine what a happy reunion that was. Love you always, Granny.

“ Oh my Sunday friend! I shall miss our trips to Church and then the Communion service and scripture discussions with Andrew. Elizabeth, I know that you are at peace with Jesus and that you will now pray for us here on earth. My regret is that I was just starting to know you. I offer my condolences to your family and may they treasure the memory of you forever. Jane
