

Elizabeth Chingono

July 1, 1977 - September 3, 2021

Elizabeth "Liz" Chingono (nee Chigoba), a dear wife, mother, sister and friend passed away on September 3, 2021 at the age of 44. A daughter of Gibson and Naomi (nee Mudautsi), she was born on July 1, 1977 in Harare, Zimbabwe. Elizabeth married the love of her life, Benjamin, on November 30, 2009 at Community Seventh Day Adventist Church in Southfield and they have been joined in love for the past 11 years.

Liz spent her adult life in service for others, working as a nurse at Beaumont Hospital-Royal Oak for over a decade. She recently graduated with a master's degree, and was a newly board-certified Nurse Practitioner. When she was not at work or taking care of her family, she volunteered her time in the children's ministry department at the Farmington SDA church, where she was an active member. There, she had a close-knit community of friends and church family.

Whenever you met Liz, you would be greeted with a warm smile, which would soon be followed by a hearty chuckle with her classic slight head tilt. She loved being around family and friends and is remembered for her humor, kindness, loving nature, and organizational skills that were sprinkled with a dose of OCD. She was a fierce protector of her children, and the stalwart of her family.

Our dear Elizabeth is survived by her beloved husband Benjamin Chingono, her children Rumbidzai, Shannon, and Joshua, her mother Naomi, and her brothers, Nikita (Faidas) and Tafadzwa (Violet). Liz was dearly loved, and will be missed by her family, nieces, nephews, many cherished friends, coworkers, and those whose lives were touched by her presence.

Elizabeth will be laid to rest on Tuesday, September 7 at the Glen Eden Cemetery in Livonia.

“ Song of Comfort:

*There is coming a day when no heartaches shall come,
No more clouds in the sky, no more tears to dim the eye;
All is peace forevermore on that happy golden shore,
What a day, glorious day that will be.*

*What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,
And I look upon His face,
The One who saved me by His grace;
When He takes me by the hand,
And leads me through the Promised Land,
What a day, glorious day that will be!*

*There'll be no sorrow there, no more burdens to bear,
No more sickness, no pain, no more parting over there;
And forever I will be, with the One who died for me,
What a day, glorious day that will be.*
