“ Jim, I cannot tell you how stunned I am to hear about Liz today. I'm sitting here thinking to myself how many times I've thought, "well, one day we will reconnect." And today to be reminded that one should always make TODAY a day to reconnect and not put it off. I'm so sorry for your loss and the pain you and the kids must be going through. I'm sorry we've lost contact over the years. I wish I could tell you how many times I've thought of the fun days spent with the Heldts and how much you have influenced the direction of my life especially in children's ministry. And, I've continued over the years to keep Matt in prayer as my first godchild. My thoughts and prayers are with you and a hope to reconnect continues. Michelle

“ Dear Becky, I still remember your mom helping out at Trinity and then at the Methodist church. In high school she made me, and all of us in 409 feel at home in your home. I wish I could be with you now. Please know I'm thinking of your whole family, and remembering what an impact your mom had on me and so many of our friends. Love, Jess
