“ As a Richard's niece, I knew both him and Betty before they were married, and was at their wedding where my father was best man. Betty became much more than an aunt-by-marriage to me... she was true family. She and my Uncle Rich never wavered in their devotion to each other and were a remarkable example of what marriage could be. They both provided a source of comfort and stability to me during many rocky times in my life, and I will be forever grateful for their kindness. When my Uncle Rich (UR) passed, the world was a poorer place, and now with Aunt Betty (AB) gone, it is poorer still. I miss them deeply. But they were never meant to be apart, and I am happy they are back together... and complete... again.

Much love and many blessings to you all, especially my cousins, during this sorrowful time.

My heart is with you.

Love, Janet Spinks
