“ I only became aware of Liddys passing recently . Liddy was my best friend and girlfriend in high school . We went our seperate ways while at MSU in 1972 . I will always remember Joe , Lorna , Steve and Jay . I was always treated very nicely by all . I spoke with her by phone in 1985 and we shared our current stories - careers , spouses and children . She was truly a very special person and I am sure that she was a wonderful wife and mother . I know that she is in a better place and my memories of her are now 50 years old but will last forever . Thank you for being a part of my life so many years ago . God bless. Sincerely , David Uutinen

“ Liz, it was so fun having you as a neighbor growing up. I still have the monogrammed change purse you gave me at my Chuck E. Cheese bday party. I'll always treasure the memories made playing with Scott and Eric, Intellivision, Scotch, the pool, the electric black car I was too big for but let me ride, 4th of July parades, picking up firecracker bits July 5th like it was an Easter egg hunt, and when you took me out in the Corvette and floored it down Tilch and told me to not tell my mom :) The list goes on. Amy Pomante said at a Mary Kay party my mom hosted that you applied your black eyeliner the best and I never forgot that. You were so proud and I think of your skills everytime I grab my liquid eyeliner. It's the little things that make a great person and you were full of them. Rest In Peace and praying for your family.

“ Liz, after 40 years of being neighbors, we have sooo many memories. From our young boys playing together and the haunted house they made for us in the basement. Later the 4th of July parties were out this world. Along with other neighbors there were parades, pony rides, mini school buses, mini limo's and so much more. The neighborhood would be totally abuzz with activity and festivity. Such great memories.

You will always be remembered fondly. You will always be "just around the corner" and one day each of us will go around the corner as well. It's been 13 years since Jennifer also went around the corner. She will see you there and is waiting to be with the rest of us.

Love,
Randy, Barb, Andy and Barkley

“ Decades of friendship since kindergarten is a long time and filled with hundreds of memories. The elaborate play scenarios you made out of boxes in your basement when we were kids. Your attempt at flying off your swing set with a cape, which left you with a broken arm. As we got older it was watching All My Children after school. Taking the bus downtown the day after Thanksgiving to go shopping. Cruising Telegraph in your Dad's Cougar. Then came marriage and babies and life. But I so loved catching up with you for lunch at the Olive Garden, our place. Your courage and strength amazed me. Liddy, I'll miss you greatly. With love, Smitty
