“ Thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family. I have never knew her to much but when I did speak to her she was very nice. I have lived next to her mom for 9 years how time flies. I have spoken to her husband and kids many times which they were always nice too.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Lindley family during this sad time. Elizabeth was not only a supervisor, she was a mentor, and friend. She deeply loved her family and spoke of them often. She worked tirelessly for the technicians here at OCC and made us feel appreciated and valued. She will be sorely missed, but I take comfort that she is in Heaven and I will see my friend again.

“ I have known Elizabeth as long as I have lived in the Detroit area. We were both Project Managers for the Detroit Area Library Network DALNET and in a sense, were part of a cohort of librarians that “grew up together” professionally. Elizabeth’s quick intelligence and creativity set her up-and-beyond. Later, when Elizabeth joined Oakland Community College OCC, I came to know her better. While I continued to appreciate her capabilities as a librarian, I also came to know and appreciate her wonderful sense of humor, her compassion, and her sound “people skills.” She cared deeply about the people who worked with her and was always quick to put in the extra effort to make their days go well. Elizabeth’s family was the center of her world. She was enormously proud of her children’s accomplishments and of them as individuals. Elizabeth is gone all too soon and she is missed by so many people in so many ways. My sincere sympathy to her family and friends.

“ I met Elizabeth 18 yrs ago. We hit it off immediately. It was one of those instant connections you make sometimes with someone and it’s like you’ve known each for years and you’ve only just met. I’ve only had a few friends like that and Elizabeth was a special one. I got to know her family when the kids were very young. We took the kids to the Detroit Zoo and had solo picnics in Willow Metropark. Sometimes I could make her go shopping with me which she hated, but I liked!. More and more of our communication was by email, but we still made time for lunches, dinners, picnics and shopping. Elizabeth was smart, funny, motivated and caring. She made friends wherever she went. I’m glad that we got to spend the time together that we had. Elizabeth always talked about how we would travel the world together when we were old ladies. I will miss the opportunity to do that.

“ I feel like words are not enough right now for Elizabeth and her family and yet that is all we have. I have only met her one time at Jill's house...at the last Linus meeting. As I was getting out of my car she pulled in right behind me and as soon as she saw that I had multiple things to carry in she offered to help me. Of course we introduced ourselves to each other in the driveway and chattered as we both tottered in with our arms full...looking forward to an evening of fun and fellowship. No, I did not know Elizabeth long, but it doesn't take long to see a beautiful heart if you are looking for it. I pray her son Justin is doing better and the rest of her family will be able to be strong for each other at this difficult time.

“ Elizabeth is so very missed by myself and, I'm sure, everyone she worked with. She has such a sweet and loving soul, so kind and compassionate. It was such a pleasure to have a supervisor that showed she cared about me as a person. I pray her family finds their strength in God, knowing she must be in his Kingdom with Him.

“ Elizabeth was one of God's bright lights here on earth. She was a lovely, kind, caring and giving person. She was a good steward for the Lord, giving selflessly to people she didn't even know, Project Linus children and many others. She will be deeply missed. Love and blessings to her and her family.
