“ I'm so sorry of the loss of such a beautiful and loving person. Betty has always made me and my family feel like we were a part of her family. She is a fine lady with a beautiful personality whom will be missed greatly. May you always be in God's loving arms and fly high with the Angels with your husband Nick as you become your family's Guardian Angels in the sky. The saying God only takes the very best is so true in this case. God bless and keep you safe. Roseann Serafano and Anthony Serafano

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. She is now in a beautiful place suffering no more. She was a wonderful person whom I came to love when my son married Nikki. Life is short, so we must make the best of it and I think Betty did make the best of her life. I enjoyed talking to her. I'm just happy she's no longer suffering. She's probably talking Nick's ears off up there in heaven!!!! God Bless you Betty
