“ Rest in peace Aunt Betty. I fondly remember all the weekends we spent with you and Uncle Bob at "the cottage" water skiing, breaking windows, rolling cinder blocks down the hill, sinking boats, shooting birds plus a few others you no know playing 500, badminton and volleyball. Thanksgivings were always a hoot as well...except for 1. The pork sausage in the Turkey dressing may have been a favorite of Bob Evans but not mine. You've had some difficult life experiences to endure but now its time to lay in the lap of our Savior and enjoy the fruits of His promises. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord And let Your perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and all of the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
