“ We Recklings lived on the farm next to Liz & Hank until the the early 70's. I have fond memeories of Liz giving me my first real hair do in her basement salon.
Brother Ray & I grew up with Vick.
I have often thought of her when I passed by her place on 23 Mile.
I will always remember her as a beautiful, classy lady.
I am so sorry for your loss, Peggy.

Oh Susan, how good to hear from you. Your entire family was on my mind recently. Such wonderful neighbors! I remember a time when I was a little kid and went nibbling on your raspberry bushes. Your mom could have sent me running, but when she came over by me she actually helped me pick some. I got the spanking when I got home....

*My childhood memories are filled with so many family outings, Sunday dinners, and Up North vacations. Uncle Hank and Aunt Liz, Mary, Vic, and you Peggy were constants. We had so much fun. We were blessed with time on earth. Until we meet again, RIP. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this yet another difficult time.
With love and sympathy,

This is so sad! The last of the neighborhood. Medias, Nightingales, VanDenBroucks and Recklings. Such a great place to grow up and so many great people. We could go to any house at any time and feel welcome. RIP With deepest sympathy, Judy Reckling Kielb
