“ Dear Don, Suzanne, Donna, Toni and all the family, On behalf of myself, the Shrine Ladies Guild and Funeral Lunch teams, and the parish community, I offer you my sincere condolences and prayers. Death seems so final and is a shock to the ways we usually expect life to be. For Ellen, her suffering is over, her Easter has come! Thanks be to God for her life and for the promise that we will all enjoy life together again thanks to the resurrection of Jesus. My prayers surround you during this difficult time. May your dear wife and mother continue to be a blessing to you as she lives her new life in God. Peace be with you! Sister Noreen Ellison
