“ We were very sad to hear of the passing of Uncle Leli, he was a wonderful man who will be greatly missed. We had the good fortune to meet him for the first time on a trip to Australia and we will always have the wonderful memory of him meeting up with Dad his brother, John after more than 40 years apart. He made a couple of trips to Australia, during which time we realised how like his brother he is. We always thought it a great shame that we live on opposite sides of the globe because although separated by miles and initially many years, there was still a great family connection and once we re-established contact we got on beautifully. Uncle Leli will be remembered as a man who loved his family, particularly his children and later his grand children. When we visited the USA he made us feel very welcome and at home, and helped us establish strong links to family which has only grown stronger ever since. We are unable to be there with you all at this difficult time, but we are most certainly there with you in spirit. Our deepest sympathy to everyone. With Love from Daniel Melissa Carli Nicholas and Ellie Bonavia

“ I was lucky enough to see Uncle Leli last year while staying with Paula for a few days. He looked happy and healthy when I saw him. And he was absolutely glowing in recent pictures in which he was holding his great-grandson Michael. He'll be missed. My condolences to the whole family.

“ I'm glad I got to see Uncle Leli when he visited us in Australia some time ago but I wish his sister Anna who was my mum was still alive at the time because she had not seen him she left Malta in 1951 but at least now they will be reunited in Heaven.
