

Emmy M. Hall

December 28, 1926 - October 20, 2017

Emmy Marie Hall, age 90, passed away on October 20, 2017 in Shelby Township. Emmy was a long time resident of Roseville, but was born and raised in Vienna, Austria. When she was eighteen years old, at the end of World War II, Emmy moved to the United States-ultimately making her way to Michigan. She was also known to enjoy spending time in her garden and watching movies on the Hallmark channel. Emmy was also an artist, with a love for music and her Il Volo CDs, as well as blessed with incredible determination and strength, a wonderful sense of humor, and an excellent memory for all things. In her later years, she particularly loved spending time with her grandchildren and celebrating holidays and birthdays with her family. Her faithful dog, Carly, also held a special place in her heart.

Emmy is survived by her daughters, Nancy (Patrick McMahan) Hall and Diane (James) Hayward. She is further survived by her grandchildren, Monica (Ian) Orzel, Lindsay (Joel Magnusson) Hall-Burdick, Sarah Craven, and Ryan McMahan. She was predeceased by her parents, Franz and Theresia Gold. “Emmy, Marie, or, as many of us knew her, Oma, what a force of nature just left us! I will always remember her as this lady, tiny in stature, yet fiercely strong in will and resolve for doing right for her family, traits which I believe were passed along to her daughters. We will all miss you, until we meet again.
