“Erline graced the Village of East Harbor for but a brief period of her 94 years, yet she blessed and befriended many. I am so grateful for having had the opportunity to know her and serve as her chaplain. Thank you for sharing this beloved woman with the residents and staff of the Village of East Harbor. Our prayers are with you as you mourn her passing into Eternal Life.

“Moms and Grandmas are unique and very special people who love and are loved more than words can express. Your sorrow can be tempered in the joy of knowing that this wonderful special lady lived a long fruitful life. She was indeed special to so many. May she have fair winds and following seas as she sails into the after-life with our Lord.
