“ Sad news for me to here that ernie is gone, but he is with rick now. Ernie was a good man & father and will be remambered in are memories forever! I was lucky to be part of your family and considered part of your family by your family. Your sons were always like my own brothers and treated me like there own brother. Me and my family send are condolences to your family and will say a prayer for ernie and the burger family.

“ I was sorry to hear this news. I love this family. We go way, way back. Only babysitting my grandchildren while my son and his wife are in San Diego would keep me away from this visitation and service. All my love to all of you. Barb
