“ I always enjoyed seeing and talking to Ester when she came by on her cart with her dogs. She was a courageous lady and an honor to know her. May she finally rest in peace from the many challenges she endured.

“ I met Ester at the mailbox one day while walking. We started chatting and soon were both laughing....she was a lovely lady. When some people leave this world, they leave a little "hole" which can never be replaced. Ester was one of those people. May she be at peace...
