“ To the family of Peggy, I only knew Peggy for a short time but she was a WONDERFUL person. I lived across the hall from her. There were so many days that she was in pain, I guess we never knew how bad it really was. She was a honest loving women. I now live in her apt. because I am on oxygen and its closer to the parking lot. I will always feel her right here in 115. May you rest in peace and pain free Peggy, you'll be MISSED. Donna Harris
