

Ethel Lorene Sasta

January 26, 1923 - May 31, 2020

Ethel Lorene Sasta, of Shelby Township, formerly of Detroit, passed away on May 31, 2020 at the age of 97. Ethel was born in White County, Tennessee on January 26, 1923 to Dillard Hayes and Polly Bounds Austin. Born and raised in the mountains of Tennessee with 11 siblings Ethel on the farm learned to work hard. As a young woman she worked in a Hosiery Mill as a Loom Picker. She came to Michigan during World War II to work in the defense industry at Douglas and Lomason where she met her future husband Paul. On May 5, 1950, Ethel married the love of her life, Paul John Sasta in Detroit Michigan. They moved to Shelby Township in 1950 where they raised two sons. She enjoyed the simple things in life, cooking, gardening, her church, and her grandchildren. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Ethel is the cherished wife of the late Paul, who passed away in 1991; the loving mother of Steven C. Sasta of Shelby Township and Roger P. Sasta of Almont; the beloved grandmother of Taylor Swain, John and Robert Sasta; the adored great-grandmother of Madalyn and Preston; and the dear sister of Mable Ann Hames of Cleveland, Tennessee. Ethel is preceded in death by her siblings Mattie Anderson, Jessie Mae Harris, Lester Austin, Edward Austin, Eunice Pannell, Jewel Austin, Arrie Tolbert, Perry Austin, Rillie Austin, Gladys Ball, and Kenneth Austin.
