“ Dear Uncle Gene,

It was always a special occasion to see you at our family gatherings. Your quick wit and sense of humor were always a great addition to the festivities; I can't count the belly laughs that we had with you during those visits. Your courage in coming over to our house for holidays with six snotty nosed kids milling around is something I now appreciate. That was like entering the lions den... Plus you even had all of us over to your flat, and even bigger undertaking. We were fairly well behaved, but let's face it, having six little kids running around a small space with a brand-new baby, our cousin Eugene, took some tremendous intestinal fortitude.

There were many afternoons spent in the backyard by the lake with you, Grandpa, and Uncle Pat, talking about current events with you finding humor in virtually all of them. Your work with Michigan Bell was fascinating to me, and made it seem like you had an ultra cool connection with a magical system.

I apologize for not being able to make it back to Michigan today. I'm sending my love and best wishes from your grand nieces Kelly, Caitlin, and Shannon to you, Gene, and Laura. If you run into Mom, Dad, Grandpa or Uncle Pat in your new place, please tell them that we miss them, as we will miss you for many years.

With love,

Pat
