“ Tom - Although I did not know your mother well, I surely learned about who she was by working with you for the past twenty years. It never seems to matter how long someone lives - it is always a jolt when they are no longer with us. Although we can be comforted by the fact that your mom is now at peace, it does not stop us from grieving. My sympathy to all members of your family.

“ Mrs. K... You will be missed. I have so many memories that will be cherished for eternity. Our families growing up together and the fun we all had building your Barton City home. The storms, the snow, the mice in the house, all fun and loving memories. Your recipes, our fun at the Eagles parties and Bingos. With all these to think about, your wonderful smile and laughter helps to endure. You are now with Mr. K, Momma and Daddy and I am sure the pinochle cards are being dealt as I type this. All our love... Harold, Michaelene, Roberta, Rebecca, Michaelene and Paul Ward also my extended family...Joseph sr. and Joseph jr Mason and Gregory, Savannah and Leannah Schaal
