“ Dear Sandy and Gib, Becky and Phillips family members, We were truly sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was an absolutely delightful woman, and you all were so very lucky to have her for so long. When we first met your mom, she made us feel like we had known her forever. She was so warm and charming. We first met your mom and dad -- and I can't remember if it was your wedding or at the Detroit Yacht Club on Belle Isle when they had that steel sailboat and y'all were celebrating Venetian Night. It was a perfect evening and your mother's charm was so ever present. Then how about square dancing? She really was a trooper!. From what you've told us, she was ready and willing to do anything. And to cap things off by seeing a play in Stradford -- well, that's great. I know you'll miss her, but just try to remember all those wonderful things about her, and we will pray for your peace and comfort from that. Leo and Lucy Lesperance
