“ Here are just a few things I remember, and loved, about Eva:
She taught a ladies Bible study that I will never forget.
She made room for me and my children in her car to take us to AWANA club.
She was a mentor in her leadership role as Sparks Director and gave me a love for the ministry.
She always had a smile for me on Sunday morning.
She was humble.
She was funny.
She was a shining example of faithfulness.
She loved her Savior.
A great lady through and through.
