DA

Pam and I were best friends growing up, and I spent a lot of time at their house. To this day, Eva's vegetable soup is the best I've ever tasted. In addition to feeding me, I learned how to shuck corn. Never thought you could learn that in East Detroit. I remember when Pam and I started at MSU, a big ten university, Eva described it as "date heaven". After leaving college I only saw Eva occasionally. I hadn't seen her for a few years and when we got together she said " my second daughter". I was really touched and honored, that she thought of me as another daughter. Rest in peace my dear second Mom.
