May 8, 1933 - May 8, 2020

Evelyn Lenore Bobchik, age 87, passed away on May 8, 2020. She was born on May 8, 1933 in Detroit to Mary Chopp and Theodore Lougheed. She was a graduate of Pershing High School in Detroit and worked at Peoples Department Store. In 1957, she married Robert Bobchik in Indiana. The couple made their home in Royal Oak for over 50 years. Evelyn was an active part of the community and enjoyed going to the senior center, socializing, playing cards, shooting pool and being a member of women's bowling leagues. In her younger years, she and Bob enjoyed roller skating. Evelyn always was ready to go for a "drive" with Bob, especially for short trips to St. Clair or to visit the cottage on Dixie Lake. She was a longtime member of St. Dennis Catholic Church and transitioned to St. Vincent Ferrer Catholic Church in Madison Heights when St. Dennis closed.

Beloved wife of Bob. Loving mother of Dan Bobchik and Dale (Anna) Bobchik. Proud grandmother of several grandchildren. Dear sister of Virginia Stout.

I loved bowling with you on our Tuesday night league. You always made us laugh and were the life of the party. Rest in Peace my friend. I hope there is bowling in heaven so maybe you can get that 300 game. You will be missed dearly.
