“ For the Rest of my living years,I will always remember Aunt Evelyn stories..She made her wedding gown,,about Lee having a full cast on,I think from waist up,and she looked out the window and saw him walking on the frozen lake..Can you imagine the look on her face I can. She told me stories about me, when I was growing up..I was very fortunate to say goodbye to her on Dec 4th 2012..I will truly miss you auntie,,I really will..I love you Janet

“ We were so sorry to hear about Eveleyn passing away. She lived a long life. Has three beautiful grandchildren and one great grandchild. She had to see the passing of her oldest son, Lee. We are certain your hearts are broken but know that your Grandma, Evelyn is now at peace with all the angels and saints. May she sleep in eternal peace. Love to all the Oldens, Max, Kathy and Joseph Wierzbinski

“ To all of the Olden Family: Jim & Dona, Karen, Kristin, Barry, Todd, Laura, Rod and Sofia. My heartfelt feelings go out to all of you. Your loved one, Evelyn, lived a long and fruitful life. She has left you with so many wonderful memories. Cling to those and each other and you will find the loss much easier to accept. We all believe she is now able to enjoy eternity with those whom she loved. I will think of you often in the coming days and pray that all of us may enjoy a life so long that it can be filled with so much love as she recieved. With warmth, Aunt Mary Kay
