“ So very sorry to hear about the passing of your mom. I have fond memories of her. Always so quick with a smile and I loved the twinkle in her eyes. I'm sorry no one from the McEachin family was able to attend the funeral today. I didn't find out until Sunday night. Please know you were all in our thoughts and prayers today.
Sincerely, Beth McEachin Lochonic

“ Craig, Ellen and all of the Livingston family, We are sorry to hear of the passing of your mom. With recent events we have come to find that the sadness and emptiness that a child or grandchild feels in their heart after a parent dies can only be filled by the memories and celebration of their life and your time together. Let every tear be followed with an amazing memory and a smile. Our prayers and thoughts are with you. Craig and Sue Blust

“ I just read in the newspaper about the passing of dear, sweet Faith Livingston. I first met her in one of my grief support classes after Everett died. She was a strong and wonderful woman. She was devoted to her family and did her best to enjoy every day of her life. She was so admirable in so many ways especially in her optimism and gusto for life. She loved her family dearly and was always able to talk about them with great pride and deep love. This is not only a loss to her family but a loss to her friends too. Hugs and love to the Livingston family.

“ Dear Livingston family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Faith Livingston. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest. Mrs Higgins
