

Faye Wong

May 2, 1927 - January 3, 2021

On Sunday, January 3rd, 2021, Faye "PoPo" Wong, loving wife, mother and grandmother, passed away at the age of 93.

Faye was born May 2, 1927 in Taishan, Guandong, China to the late Chack and Quong (Shee)Yee. She moved to the U.S. after marrying Edward C. Wong on September 23, 1947. They set their roots in Lansing, MI, where they became active members in their church community and adopted and raised two children.

Faye loved her family and loved caring for them. In 2005, Faye and Ed moved in with their daughter and son-in-law, where Faye delighted in caring for and interacting with her 4 granddaughters on a daily basis.

She enjoyed attending her granddaughters' hockey and soccer games and music and dance recitals throughout the years. She loved watching sports on TV, especially on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, when she could be found watching WWE Wrestling.

Faye excelled at all things handmade, from sewing to crochet and knitting. She loved fashion and shopping, and was known to arrive at her physical therapy appointments dressed to the nines with rings on every finger. She shared her passion for gardening and cooking with her daughter, although she never shared a recipe.

Faye is survived by her husband, Edward "Gong Gong", children Teak Soo Wong and Francisca (Michael) Fairman, and granddaughters Haley, Anna, Sophia and Ella.

A private celebration of Faye's life will be held on a date to be determined.
