“ I always looked forward to hearing from Aunt Fern at Christmas and running into her and Uncle Ted in Bear Lake when they came for their class reunions each year. She never missed a beat, she was a very special lady and will be truly missed!

“ She was the one with the easy smile, the aunt who was easy to talk to, the aunt who never forgot she was a farmer's daughter from "up-north," the aunt who could make you laugh each time she lovingly scolded her husband. In all of the decades we knew her, never did we hear her make a disparaging remark about another. And that's how we will remember her: loving, smiling, humble--a great aunt, sister, and person. Goodbye, Aunt Fern. We miss you already.

“ Sheila and Frank, I am so very sorry to hear the news about your mother. Surely she lived a long life, and was very much loved. No matter how long, though, it is always with great sadness and difficulty to lose someone, especially around the holidays. I'd guess, though, that you will be celebrating her life and the many years you all shared with her. Please know you are in our prayers and thoughts....
