“ Our sincere condolences to the family of Florence Robinson. We worked with Ed Robinson at the Ford Van Dyke Plant, and were saddened at the news of his wife's passing. May you all be comforted by fond memories of your beloved Florence. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time.

“ Dang it Flo, you left us way too soon. I wish you could have stayed longer. We will keep you in our hearts forever, and watch over the guys too. Things are not the same without you, Christmas was different. We will try to keep the guys busy so they know they are not alone. You are in heaven now with the angels, maybe you can watch over us here. I love you, I really do.

“ I will miss you so much Grandma Flo. I have to say it felt very odd stopping by your house the other day to see grandpa without you there. The kitchen was so quiet. You held grandpa's hand and had asked him in the hospital a few weeks ago, "Do you like being at home by yourself?" and he thought about it and said, "Well, no I don't have anybody to argue with." Although he uses humor to deal with things, I know he has been hurting really bad. I promise I will do my best to watch over grandpa and uncle Ed. You would be glad to know the two of them came over to my house for Christmas dinner with my parents yesterday. It really brought some comfort having their company, and I think they felt the same way. Grandma, you always had a way of making me feel loved. As selfish as this may sound, I am glad I had you and grandpa all to myself as your grandchild. You honestly are and will probably always be the most selfless person I will ever know. I miss you, and I love you very much.

“ Mrs. Robinson you were the funniest lady, coming over for a cup of coffee and a chat. With a listening ear and don't worry about it attitude, everything will be fine. May God Bless you and your family.
