“ I work with a guy that if im correct that your brother john was in the marines as a drill instructor, he instructed this guy Dave while he was in basic training, today he brought his basic training year book with the instructors pictures, and the name is J.S. Llewellyn. If a family member could help me confirm this ... then I will have pictures of history and it is truly a small world. : I hope that what I have found is true. Thank you and Little Grandpa we miss you and little grandma so much... I wish that I could have brought Jeffrey in time to see you. You would have loved him ... he has your and my personality. : Well I know that grandma and the angels are taking good care of you now. I love you both. Love Ash
