“ Captain was my commanding officer for over 4 years when I was his company clerk in Co A 156 Signal Bn. We were having a normal weekend drill when we were called to duty during the Detroit riot. Someone asked him what our orders were, as no one knew what was going on that Sunday morning. He simply said, "Protect yourself." Captain always cared about his men, and was well liked by anyone that knew him. He was firm, but fair. That is all you can ask of a leader. I am sorry for your loss.

Mr. Bejnar, I too was a co clerk in the 156th Signal Bn Co A, (former 177th, Artillery Armory, Sfld) later including our 1961-62 activation to Fort Benning, GA, during the Berlin Wall Crisis. Its 1st Sgt in the Shultis late '50's I believe was Chulak, and Swienke, in GA it was Schoen - all great guys.
