“ There is no love like a mother's. We were blessed with her nonjudgmental, unconditional and enduring love. She was a great matriarch whose only true desire was for her family to be happy. She taught us by example what true love really is and through that example, taught me how to love my own family. I'm am relieved that you do not have to suffer anymore and take comfort in knowing you're with the Lord, dad and the rest of your family and have faith that I'll see you again, but I will miss you every day for the rest of my life. I love you. Tell dad hello for me as well.
