“ Fran - I'm sorry I didn't get the message until too late to come by to express my condolences personally! Please know that I'm thinking of you and hope that everything goes as easily as it can. I hope to see you soon.

“ In the midst of getting ready to go to the celebration of her life, I feel I have to share how blessed I have been to have had a wonderful mother AND a wonderful second mother, my Aunt Fran, who taught me how to love and be loved. Thoreau said it well, "There is the land of the living and the land of the dead. The bridge is love."
