“ As a hospice volunteer on Monday morning I looked forward to our visits as her humor was somewhat dry but she was very considerate and insightful as well.

“ My Grandmother was truly an inspiration. She was hard and soft at the same time. Christmas' at her house were some of the best times of my life. I will miss her so much but am so blessed to have had her in my life for 31 years.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know it has been a tough year for your family. I visited Frances every Monday at Cherrywood as a Hospice volunteer. I truly enjoyed our visits and will miss the conversation and all of the good advice she gave to me... "save your money", and "let everyone else do the work on Thanksgiving". I will think of that and smile. She will be missed. It was an honor to have known her.
