“ Dear Trainor family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Frances Trainor. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.

“ I enjoyed being a care giver to Francis, she was always such a joy to be around. Always smiling and so considerate of others. I learned to love Francis, Lee and the whole family I have some very good memories that I can hold on to and just thinking of her makes me smile....we had lots of fun. Singing to Daniel O'Donell, polishing her nails, making them home made meals, styling her hair when she couldn't make it to the beauty shop....the list goes on and on. What a terrific lady she was. I hope to see her again when it comes my time to go "home". R.I.P. Francis God bless
