He kept in touch with many of his classmates at Cranwell and enjoyed reminiscing on the time he spent there. Francis' outgoing nature made him a revered friend to all.

Frank gave this our family many years ago as a tribute to the jacket that he wore in the military. I throw away everything but wanted to hang on to this. Thank you Frank for you!

“ I'm heartbroken to hear of Frank's passing. He was a good friend to my father since before I was born, and he has been a friend to our entire family.
