“ I first met Franco when I started coming to watch Serie A games downstairs at the club. I was (and still am) an interista, and it soon became apparent that Franco was the most vocal of the interisti in the crowd. As the seasons went on, we talked more and more about players, trades, and coaches (because Inter had lots of them). But I'll always remember Franco's warm smile and welcome when I'd arrive (usually late), usually accompanied by a shout of "Siamo forte!!!" if Inter had already scored. Rest in peace my friend, and enjoy watching derbies with Carlo up there.

My family sends its prayers on behalf of your family, and may God's grace give you peace and comfort. Marc Bronzetti and family.
