“ Frank was a wonderful friend, who will be sorely missed. I've known him and Peggy for sixteen years. We all have shared some happy times, conversations and dinners together. Peggy and Frank invited me to their home on Christmas Eve one time, because I was going to be alone for the holidays. I will never forget their thoughtfulness. Over the years, we went to listen to David play music a couple times. Frank and Peggy raised a very loving family to be proud of. It's been an honor to know Frank. I have the highest degree of respect for such a gentle and kind man. Carole Brusen

“ I think of Frank every time I see the Mackinac Bridge and how he was lucky enough to climb inside to the top in one of the towers. What a great story he told.
