“ Dad had a big family of loving sons, daughters, grandchildren and great grand children. This love extended to nieces, nephews, aunt and uncles. My siblings their spouses and children have all been taking care of dad for the past few years with love ,dinner, family gatherings hospital stays and doctor visits. Sharing all the "feels" good and sad. My sister managed dad's affairs and daily care a special loving and grateful thanks to her. We will never be able to thank her enough. Dad looked for her daily visits and calls. We love him and are really gonna miss his humor, hunting fishing stories and so much more. We are proud of his service to our country and the success he had despite a meager upbringing he was a true self made man and trusted friend to many. Dad was John Wayne to me, and Archie Bunker to Chris. Be peaceful dad and like we all said "go find mom she's been waiting for you. "

Renee, your father and your family was near and dear to the entire Bailey family. So sorry to hear of his passing. You were one of my earliest guitar teachers, a craft that I have recently took up again. Frank and Julie used to come over to the house for gatherings with the Schmidt's, Hoyts, Gillings, Friedels, and others. So many great memories of going to your house before going sledding at Stoney. His laugh was infectious as he and Chuck, our father, were the life of any party they were at ..Rest in peace Frank, you will be missed...
