“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Fred's family and freinds. I only new Fred a short time from Lowes as a fellow tool department employee this spring. He was always there to help customers and associates the best he could offer while trying to deal with his own problems. The store and fellow employees missed him when he had to leave for health reasons. His pain is gone now and my he rest in peace.

No matter what the day brought, you always had a huge smile and heartfelt hello for every customer, and each one of us, your Lowe's family. Thank you for being a part of our lives. I will remember and miss you always. Say hi to mom and dad for me. You know what I mean. LL
