“ I started working with Fred at Melody Farms in 1962 when I was 14 years old. I was his 'helper' on the ice cream delivery truck until I was old enough to drive....and then he was my 'boss' for the next 40 years. Fred was known as the 'negotiator' and he always drove a hard bargain. God bless you Freddie.....you will always have a soft spot in my heart as a mentor and a close friend!!

I meet Fred and Marsha at Melody Farms back in the 1983. We have been friends ever since. Even after I left Melody Farms we stayed friends/family. We traveled together, we went out together..etc.. My husband Richi was like brother to Fred. Would go to Las Vegas together with his son Phil and grandboys. You will be missed by alot of friends and family. BUT not forgotten... Are prayers are with him and Marsha. Now it your turn to rest in Heaven.
