“ Fuad was a wonderful human being, always smiling, and ready with a joke or interesting story. He was a gentle and hard working man that loved everyone. He will be missed. God speed Fuad!

“ I am sorry that I could not attend the services for Fuad in person. (Of course, he was always known to us as "Fred".) In our ten year association he was a great friend and mentor, freely giving of his time and support. He will be greatly missed by all. My condolences on this sad event.

“ Tony and I were very sorry to hear of Fuad's passing. He was always a very kind and caring neighbor and always offered his help when I became a widow. He and my husband were born on the same day and it was cute to see them always hug across the fence on their birthday. Ed was about a head taller! He would always have a joke to tell Ed. May he find peace in heaven.....
