“ Melissa, Mary, Michelle and Fred: Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time, we know all too well the pain you're going through. But take comfort in knowing that she is in a better place now, without disease, without suffering. From the U.P. with love, Jeff, Julie, Sydney and Kenedy Hagan

“ Dear Fred, I just learned of Gail's death when I came into the Shrine this morning. I am so sorry for you and all your family. I know you are in shock. Gail fought the good fight, and you prayed well as you accompanied her through the disease that devastated her body. Somehow the cure was just not meant to be. May your great love and devotion be a strength now, in your grief. I pray very specially for you this Holy Week that you will experience the consolation and hope of not only Jesus' resurrection, but of Gail's new life in God. May she continue to bless and love you on your earthly journey! I will be at a day-long retreat at Manresa on Wednesday, so I will pray very specially for you and all your family. Peace be with you!
With love and prayer, Sister Noreen Shrine of the Little Flower

“ We are grateful to have known Gail, even if for only a short time. Her beaming smile lit up any room and she has been missed at our Monday Cenacle. She is now in her beloved God's presence and no longer suffering earthly pain. Our condolences and ongoing prayers are with Fred and their family.
