“Gail was my best friend and I will miss her dearly. She loved unconditionally and listened to me babble on for hours. She was such a great prayer warrior. No matter day or night, Gail would call her friends for you and ask for prayer. We had a lot of laughs together and some tears as well. I always promised her that if she left first I was going to make her flowers in the shape of a bra because she hated them so. Well, her bra is there in thought but not in reality because the rest of her friends might not understand. When Gail was frustrated about something in her life she would say that she was adding it to the list for Jesus because when she got there "they were going to have a long talk." Gail, I am sure you were so thrilled to see his face that you forgot all about that list. I have a lot of wonderful memories that I am going to hold onto until we meet again. "Love you."

“ Gail was a lovely fun friend. I remember a trip to Busch Gardens with Gail on a scooter that turned into a weapon! I was also lucky enough to share a cruise to celebrate Gail and Randy's 50th anniversary. I will miss her ❤️🙏
