“ For the daughters of Gail... there is hope in God that your mom knew Jesus well. She is in a better place, and you will see her in Heaven when the good Lord calls you home. Just know Jesus. The Lord does not allow anything to happen that He has not equipped you to handle. Comfort and deepest sympathies.... Kristy Saluk Wells

“ *In loving memory of a sweet tender-hearted Gail - You fought the good fight of faith and now you have won the victory of life forever more - with Jesus. As Norma's sister, I learned a lot about Gail and I cared for her too. She made a difference in my life and in this world. Remember all the good times and don't accept any regrets for Gail would only want the best for her family and friends, whom she loved so dearly. I too will miss you and see you again one day, Gail.
