“ G, You were my first love. You gave me the greatest gift one could give our daughter Katie. Through her you will live on. Hope you find peace.

“ I remember Gary when he was growing up. His dad and my late husband Dick went to school together. I remember the freckles and what a cute kid he was. We lost touch over the years but visited back and forth between Florida and Michigan.

“ Memories. Where to start. I remember holding you in my arms as a newborn, diapering your bottom and baby sitting you when I was only 11 years old. Your carrot red hair, and face full of freckles, you reminded me of Obi. Watching you grow into a fine young man, marrying and having a beautiful daughter who looks just like you. Memories, yes I have many, too numerous to share. I love you Gary. You are at peace now, and with grandpa, grandma and your mom and dad who I'm sure all greeted you with open arms. One more bright and shining star in the heavens. Much love, Aunt Susie.

“ I consider Gary a life long friend of mine.I first meet Gary in front of our elementary school where he was showing us how to break bottles with his foot,well he was wearing tennis shoes and that didn't work very well as i found out where he lived by the blood trail to his house.We where good friends every since that day.Thanks for the good memories. RIP Charlie

“ Sorry to hear about Gary. He brought back memories of that crazy neighborhood we ruled. He was always laughing at something while we were sitting on the wall on the Wallace corner. RIP Gary
