“ To my uncle who I loved so very much. You have taught me to never give up and be who I am, but don't put up with BS either. You were fighting for so long and I'm so thankful you are no longer in pain, but I miss you so much already. Not a day will go by that I don't think about you. I love you more than you will ever know. Thank you for being you and giving your all to this family. You're now with uncle Jeff, grandma and grandpa in heaven. Watch over me and everyone through the years. I love you beyond words Uncle Gary.... 😞

“ Uncle Gary, you were a very special person with a quick wit, sense of humor, and always put your family first. I will remember our chats and most importantly how strong of a spirit you were. Even in the face of adversity, you chose your own path under your own resolve. That takes tremendous courage and fortitude that should set an example for the rest of us.

Til we meet again (and, we will!). Love your niece, Dawn.

“ There are no words to say how much I love you uncle. Your impact on my life has been enormous. From our talks on your porch, teaching me car repair, watching 80s wrestling together, snarling contests as a kid (always letting me win) and the reassurance that no matter what was going on in my life, if I needed you, you would be there. What I think I will miss most are the waves between us as I passed your house, watching you sip a cool drink on the porch and seeing your smile. Until we see each other again old man, get a classic car ready for us to work on. You promised to show me how to drop an engine.
