Nola Lapointe - September 27, 2015 at 01:18 PM

“ We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your Mom. Our hearts and prayers are with you and your family in this most difficult time. Know that you will forever be in her heart as she will forever be in yours. You will see her again when you return to our Fathers home in the heavens above. Know that she is at peace and PAIN FREE! Love you, Rob and Traci DeWitt

Traci DeWitt - September 26, 2015 at 05:20 PM

“ I know she is up in heaven with papa being out of control. I love and miss you already. I wish we could have all played one last game of dice before your farewell. I love you.

“ I'm going to miss our dice games the most! We all teased each other and laughed about everything! Like the time I was keeping score but got caught up in the conversation and wasn't listening when she tried, patiently at first, to tell me her score. I think she repeated it 5 times before yelling, "500!" I looked at her and told her she didn't have to yell and we burst out laughing. That happened a lot during our games. We were too busy having fun to pay attention to score keeping.

I love you and will miss you always Grandma!

“ Grandma Jenny was so involved in our lives, this will take a long time to get used to, if ever. I will miss so many things. Our phone calls, dice games, Frankenmuth trips, noodle making, weekends at my mom's... Oh, and of course her sass! She was almost more like my girlfriend than Grandma. If she wasn't there, then I was talking to her about whatever it was that was going on. Sami always had to take the phone from me to talk to her and tell her she loved her. I'm sad that she won't meet my new grandchild that is on the way. I only hope we can continue our traditions with her in mind. There will never be a time when I won't wish she were right there with us. I love you forever grandma Jenny.

“ Grandma Jenny was an amazing woman. Not only did she raised seven children she helped raise most of her grandchildren too including myself I lived with her for 10 years before I turned 18 and moved out . All my friends loved her too. I will miss her so much she is one of the strongest women I know . I love you grandma to the moon and beyond.
