“ Dear Cuff Cousins, I am sorry that Mike and I are out of state and cannot attend the funeral this morning. Please know that I am thinking of you and praying for you. I have so many fond memories of my Uncle George, my mom's "Big Brother". Take comfort in the fact that he lived a long, full life with many blessings and joys, including all of you. I can't help but think of all the welcoming arms waiting to greet him up in heaven. Oh, what a celebration it must be! Take care. I love you and I'm praying for you.... Diane
