“ To the family of George Force : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I say goodbye to you Dad. It makes it easier knowing you are breathing easier and with Karon. Thank you for being a wonderful role model not only for me but my boys. You were always there for me supporting me in whatever I did. Even though I have not lived close I always knew you were only a phone call away. Among many things I am going to miss your first comment when ever I called. After the initial hello and how are you, you always said - "We are doing ok, yep we are doing ok". May you rest in peace. Love you forever.

“ I enjoyed the time I visited George and Betty at their cabin up North. We laughed at each others stories. We had a wonderful time..I was able to visit them three times. I am going to miss him and I'll miss seeing Betty.

“ Even through my last days I will not lose sight of my integrity, love, and strength. I will not allow my fears to overwhelm me with emotion. I will look for strength in knowing that my daughter Karen is at the gate of heaven to greet me with open arms. I will take solice in knowing my living daughters Pam and Ann are not only here by my side but also remain strong for their mother. I have asked her (my wife) for her blessing to allow me to rest in peace and let me go for now, and soon we shall reunite. I have arrived in heaven and as you enter these gates I have chosen to be there to gracefully take your hand so you are not afraid when it is your day to come.

This was my Grandfather (George Force)- through all the years he has remained true to himself, selfless love for his wife through 72 years. He enjoyed the simple things in life such as; baseball, model planes, and fishing. He believed in the value of hard work. Although growing up I didn't really understand what this simplicity had to offer. However now, through his passing and through his final days it all became relevant and significant to me in the most sincere way.

Thank you Grandpa for teaching me the most valuable lessons in life. May your heart rest, your soul prevail, and your faith be ever so strong. Soon again you will hold her in your arms and find total serenity.

“ I said good bye for now to my Dad. He passed away at the age of 93. I couldn't have asked for a better father. He taught me many things and showed me how strong a person can be. He loved my mom like no other. Dad may you rest in peace and breath easy. Forever I will always love you.
