“ Uncle George, we will always remember your great gift of gab, the delicious and plentiful veggies from your garden, watching wrestling on TV and the way you never let the fact that you only had one arm stop you in any way. You will be missed. Rest in peace!

“ Dad--I told you months ago that if I had to describe you in one word, that word would be courageous. You truly had the courage of a martyr. God has given you your share of hardships from losing your dear mother when you wre just a baby, to the loss of your arm, the loss of a baby son and your suffering of this last year. But you persevered through all of it with a great attitude and chose to count your many blessings--your love of God , your family, and your biggest blessing, mom. We will miss you dad but we will find strength & comfort knowing "today you are with God in paradise." I love you always!
